

Ex.1. Match the words with their definition in the right column.

dough	A solid substance used for candles, polishing, or sealing.
porch	To change from a solid to a liquid, usually due to heat
fussy	A plate with a small piece broken or missing from its edge
To supply	a covered outdoor area attached to the entrance of a building
wax	to provide something needed or wanted.
chipped plate	mixture flour with water to make pastries or bread
to melt	hard to please, often overly particular or demanding

Ex.2. Complete the sentences with a suitable phrase from the box in the correct form.

1. She kneaded the ..... patiently, watching it rise under the warm towel.
2. The ..... sent his meal back to the kitchen three times before he was satisfied.
3. They were sitting on the ..... , sipping lemonade as the sun set over the horizon.
4. The ice cream began to ..... as soon as it was brought out into the summer heat.
5. The scent of fresh cookies filled the kitchen as soon as she opened the ..... door.
6. He carefully dripped ..... onto the letter, sealing it with his family crest.
7. The factory was built to ..... the region with fresh, locally made goods.
8. She noticed the ..... at the edge of the table, a small reminder of last night's party.
9. The child couldn't resist the urge to ..... the spoon after stirring the chocolate batter.
10. In the car accident my cousin injured his legs, so now he walks really badly and uses a walking ..... .
11. After years of hard work, she finally became the ..... businesswoman she had always dreamed of being.
12. Alexander Graham Bell ..... the telephone in 1876 by accident.

