

too, too much, too many, (not) enough GRAMMAR 9.3

3 Fill in the gaps with too, too much or too many.

- When I met him I was                    nervous to talk.
- I've drunk                    coffee today.
- I've had                    sleepless nights recently.
- I've heard that excuse                    times before.
- Conrad was                    tired to come.
- A What's London like?
B There's                    traffic in the city and it's                    touristy in the summer.
- There were                    people in the queue.
- You've always got                    work!

4 Read the quotations. Choose the correct phrases.

I'm not <sup>1</sup>young enough/enough young to know everything

Oscar Wilde 1854-1900

We have just <sup>2</sup>enough religion/
religion enough to make us hate,
but not enough to make us love one another.

Jonathan Swift 1667-1745

If you want creative workers, give them
<sup>3</sup>enough time/time enough to play.

John Cleese 1939-

Life isn't <sup>4</sup>enough long/long enough for love and art.

W. Somerset Maugham 1874-1965

A lie told <sup>5</sup>enough often/often enough becomes the truth.

Vladimir Lenin 1870-1924

I have <sup>6</sup>enough money/money enough to last me the rest of my life, until I buy something.

Jackie Mason 1936-

5 Complete the sentences with these words and enough.

money	food	time	salt	confident
exciting	loud	warm

- There isn't                    to finish this.
- I'm cold! It isn't                    to sit outside.
- Can you turn the TV up? It isn't                   .
- I haven't got                   . Can I borrow some from you?
- The film wasn't                    for a thriller.
- This food is very bland. I don't think there's                   .
- Stay for dinner! There's                    for everyone.
- He's not                    to talk to her.

6 Warren and Hal are camping. Look at the picture. Then fill in the gaps. Use the correct form of have got and (not) enough, too much or too many.

- They've got enough tents.
- They                    water.
- They                    pairs of sunglasses.
- Warren                    money.
- Hal                    sun cream.
- Warren                    clothes.
- They                    LIVEWORKSHEETS