

COMMANDS AND INSTRUCTIONS

Here's an exercise for practicing commands and instructions in the automotive industry.

- Read the scenario and drag the correct command or instruction to the context.

Mask - Replace - Remove - Check - Attach - Select - Ask - Tighten - Press -
Approach - Adjust - Proceed - Clean - Insert - Connect - Open - Enter - Drive

- Scenario: You are a mechanic giving instructions to a technician about changing a car's oil filter.

Instruction: _____ the old oil filter carefully and _____ it with a new one.

- Scenario: You are a service advisor instructing a customer on how to adjust the car's side mirrors.

Instruction: _____ the side mirrors to ensure you have a clear view of the road behind you.

- Scenario: You are a quality control supervisor giving a command to a worker about inspecting the tires for any damage.

Command: _____ the tires thoroughly for any signs of damage or wear.

- Scenario: You are a safety officer explaining the steps to follow during an emergency evacuation drill at the manufacturing plant.

Instruction: In the event of an emergency alarm, _____ to the designated assembly area calmly and quickly.

- Scenario: You are a production manager directing a team of workers on how to assemble a car's engine.

Instruction: _____ the cylinder head to the engine block and _____ the bolts securely.

- Scenario: You are a salesperson demonstrating a new car's navigation system to a customer.

Instruction: To input your destination, _____ the "Navigation" button on the screen, then _____ the address using the on-screen keyboard.

- Scenario: You are a car wash attendant guiding a customer on how to use the self-service car wash.

Instruction: First, _____ the correct amount of coins into the payment slot, then _____ your preferred wash program and _____ slowly into the washing bay.

- Scenario: You are a technician instructing a colleague on how to recharge a car's air conditioning system.

Instruction: Before starting the recharge process, _____ the charging hose to the low-pressure port, then _____ the valve slowly to begin the recharge.

- Scenario: You are a body shop manager providing guidance to a painter on how to prepare a car for painting.

Instruction: _____ the car's surface thoroughly, removing any dirt or contaminants, then _____ off the areas that shouldn't be painted.

- Scenario: You are a dealership manager briefing the sales team on greeting customers.

Instruction: When a customer enters the showroom, _____ them with a smile and _____ how you can assist them.