J.R.R. Tolkien (1892 – 1973) was an English author, poet and *philologist. He's best known for writing The Hobbit and the books in The Lord of the Rings series. These books made him one of the best-selling authors in the 20th century. Early in his career, he was busy with teaching and being a professor but in 1930, when he was 38 years old, he began writing The Hobbit. He wrote it to entertain his four children. He took several years to complete it and it was finally published in 1937.
