Stand Out in a Job Interview | The Harvard Business Review Guide

1. Why is it important to do your homework before a job interview?

_____

_____

2. How can researching the organization and job position help you during an interview?

_____

_____

3. What role do personal stories play in making a good impression during an interview?

_____

_____

4. How can sharing personal stories help you stand out from other candidates?

_____

_____

5. Why is practicing your stories important before an interview?

_____

_____

6. What should you focus on when practicing your opening for a job interview?

_____

_____

7. How can recording yourself on practicing in front of a friend help improve your interview performance?

_____

_____

8. What is Amy Gallo's recommendation for handling tough questions about your resume?

_____

_____