

Complete the following sentences using the present continuous form of the verbs in parentheses. The present continuous is used to express future actions that have been planned or scheduled. Pay attention to whether the sentence is affirmative, negative, or interrogative, and fill in the blanks accordingly.

- For affirmative sentences, use the correct present continuous form (am/is/are + verb + ing).
- For negative sentences, add "not" to the present continuous form.
- For interrogative sentences, structure your answer by placing the auxiliary verb (am/is/are) before the subject.

Affirmative:

1. I _____ (go online) to check my emails later today.
2. She _____ (click on an icon) to open the application this afternoon.
3. We _____ (type in a password) to access the system tomorrow morning.
4. He _____ (search the internet) for flight tickets tonight.
5. They _____ (visit a website) to read the news this evening.
6. She _____ (download a document) for the meeting tomorrow.

Negative:

7. I _____ (not/go online) to check my emails later today.
8. She _____ (not/click on an icon) to open the application this afternoon.
9. We _____ (not/type in a password) to access the system tomorrow morning.
10. He _____ (not/search the internet) for flight tickets tonight.

Interrogative:

11. _____ they _____ (visit a website) to read the news this evening?
12. _____ she _____ (download a document) for the meeting tomorrow?

13. _____ I _____ (go online) to check my emails later today?

14. _____ we _____ (type in a password) to access the system tomorrow morning?