

Exercise 2: Fill in the blanks with the correct personality adjective or its opposite from Exercise 1

1. She always shares her lunch with her friends. She is very _____.
2. He never tells the truth. He is quite _____.
3. Despite the challenges, she remains _____ about the future.
4. You can count on him to be there on time. He is very _____.
5. When things don't go his way, he gets _____ quickly.
6. She always has a smile on her face. She is _____.
7. He doesn't like to share his things. He is rather _____.
8. She never says please or thank you. She is so _____.
9. Even in dangerous situations, she stays _____.
10. He avoids doing his homework and chores. He is _____.
11. She is very careful with her work and always gets it done. She is _____.
12. He always looks on the bright side of things. He is _____.
13. She is never in a hurry and waits calmly. She is _____.
14. He is always open and honest about his feelings. He is _____.
15. She always listens and tries to understand others. She is _____.

Exercise 3: Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the words Belief, Decision, Creation, and Explanation)

1. She has a strong _____ in justice.
2. Do you _____ in ghosts?
3. His excuse was hardly _____.
4. Making the right _____ is crucial.
5. I can't _____ what to wear.
6. She is very _____ in her actions.
7. The artist's new _____ is stunning.
8. They plan to _____ a new app.
9. He is very _____ with his ideas.
10. His _____ was confusing.
11. Can you _____ this to me?
12. The phenomenon was not easily _____.