

GRAMMAR QUIZ ON COUNTABLE/UNCOUNTABLE NOUNS-QUANTIFIERS-ARTICLES

Name: Surname:

1. Circle the appropriate choice to complete the sentences.

1. There ... not enough time to visit both museums.
a. were
b. had
c. was
d. are

2. "Did you go to that concert?" "No. There were ... tickets left."
a. some
b. any
c. not much
d. no

3. ... people can afford a new car every year.
a. Few
b. Little
c. Both
d. Much

4. "What time does the film start?" "Well, the news ... on at 8, and it's right after that."
a. are
b. is
c. are being
d. has been

5. The manager gave Richard so ... work that he had to stay late to finish everything.
a. many
b. any
c. few
d. much

6. Unfortunately, there are ... jobs advertised in the newspaper that I am qualified for.
a. no
b. any
c. neither
d. little

7. During ... 1980s, many people used computers at work for the first time.
a. the
b. a
c. an
d. -

8. "Hello? No, Mr Green is at ... work. Can I take a message?"
a. the
b. a
c. an
d. -

2. Circle the correct word.

1. The work/works Nick did was/were so good that he got a bonus.
2. My jeans is/are too tight. I suppose I ate too much/many food last week.
3. The news last night was/were so depressing. I hope it/they will be better tonight.
4. He has fantastic memory/memories of his childhood, which was/were spent on a farm.
5. We've run out of coffee/a coffee. Could you get one/some when you go to the store?
6. There is/are many person/people who have the right qualification/qualifications for this job.
7. My hair is/hairs are getting long. Is/Are there a hairdresser's near here so I can get it/them cut?

3. Correct the sentences.

1. In my free time, I listen to the music, go to the cinema and play the guitar.
2. Oscar had lot of time to start new hobbies when he was in prison.
3. I go to the chess club at the weekend by the bus.
4. I like comedies, whether they are on television or on radio.
5. You need a hobby, like playing the flute or collecting the stamps.
6. My hobby is drawing so when I grow up I'd like to be artist.

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.

