

Colonial America – The Southern Colonies

Multiple Choice:

- Who was Maryland named after?
 - Queen Isabella
 - Queen Henrietta Maria
 - Queen Elizabeth
- What Southern state was the first to be established?
 - Georgia
 - South Carolina
 - Virginia
- What Southern state was the last to be established?
 - Georgia
 - Virginia
 - North Carolina
- Why were the Southern states different from all the others?
 - They had more land available for crops
 - Economic success depended on use of slaves
 - Culture and Hospitality
- What was a poor person who signed a contract and worked for a master in exchange for transportation, clothing, and shelter called?
 - Indentured Servant
 - homeless
 - Temporary Citizen
- Why did farmers use slaves as labor for their crops?
 - They could earn more money with free labor
 - They couldn't get anyone else to work
 - They had lots of kids and needed help
- Where did debtors go in the 1700's?
 - The White House
 - Prison
 - Home
- What is Virginia known for?
 - Cotton picking and ice tea
 - Vanilla bean and coffee
 - The House of Burgesses and growing tobacco
- What did Georgia become a major exporter of?
 - Coffee, beer, and silver
 - Rice, indigo, beef, and pork
 - Chocolate, wheat, and corn
- What was Roanoke Colony known as?
 - The Rich Colony
 - The bold colony
 - The Lost Colony
- What states were included in the Southern Colonies?
 - Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia
 - North Carolina, North Dakota, Georgia, and New Jersey
 - Massachusetts, New Jersey, North Carolina, and Mississippi
- What year did North Carolina and South Carolina separate?
 - 1820
 - 1729
 - 1746
- What cash crops did South Carolina have?
 - Chocolate, tea, and copper
 - Corn, beans, and wheat
 - Rice, tobacco, and indigo
- What were 2 major differences between the Southern colonies and the Northern colonies?
 - Climate and economy
 - Crops and Trade
 - Language and culture
- Where was the new colony of Georgia started?
 - In the Rocky Mountains
 - At the mouth of the Savanna River
 - Below the Michigan lakes
- What was the climate like in the Southern Region?
 - Cold winters and mild summers
 - Frigid winters and rainy summers
 - Mild winters, hot and humid summers