

Instructions:

Fill in the blanks with the correct indefinite pronoun from the following list:
anything, something, nothing, anywhere, somewhere, nowhere, anybody, somebody, nobody.

Sentences:

1. My course project was _____ in the classroom; it seems to have disappeared.
2. She asked if _____ could help her with the dictionary, but everyone was busy.
3. The head teacher said that _____ had failed the exam, which was a huge relief for the students.
4. I've looked _____ in my timetable, but I can't see when the test is scheduled.
5. There's _____ wrong with my experiment; I need to fix it before tomorrow.
6. _____ brought their essay to the head teacher before the deadline; they will not receive their certificate on time.
7. He couldn't find his textbook _____ and had to borrow one from the library.
8. They are hoping to find _____ to study quietly before the final exam.
9. The teacher asked if there was _____ they didn't understand in the essay instructions.
10. _____ in the class knew how to solve the problem on the test, so the teacher had to explain it again.
11. Does _____ want to present their course project next week?
12. After several hours of searching, they still found _____ useful for the experiment in the lab.