

There is, There are: affirmative, negative and interrogative

Affirmative singular	Negative singular	Questions singular
there's	there isn't	Is there ... ?

Se usa there's, there isn't y Is there ...? para el singular.

There's a car. Hay un coche.

Se usa there are, there aren't y Are there ...? para el plural.

There aren't two cars. No hay dos coches.

1. Elige la opción correcta.

- There are / There is a pencil case on the desk.
- There are / There is thirty students in class.
- There are / There is pens in the pencil case.
- There are / There is a rubber on the desk.
- There are / There is two rulers next to Susan.
- There are / There is a book in the school bag.

2. Ahora complete las oraciones con There is o There are.

- is a pencil case on the desk.
- thirty students in class.
- pens in the pencil case.
- a rubber on the desk.
- two rulers next to Susan.
- a book in the school bag.

3. Ahora complete las oraciones con There isn't o There aren't.

In my classroom...

- two computers.
- fifty desks.
- a red door.
- ten boys.
- three students.
- a tablet.

Affirmative plural	Negative plural	Questions plural
there are	there aren't	Are there ... ?

4. Completa las preguntas con Is there o Are there. Mira el dibujo y responde. Usa:
Yes, there is / Yes, there are
No, there isn't / No, there aren't

- a teacher?
.....
- ten desks?
.....
- a blue door?
.....
- six students?
.....
- ten girls?
.....
- a pink pencil case?
.....