

The best entertainment

VOCABULARY REVIEW

TV shows and movies

Read the descriptions. Match them to the correct genre.

Genres	1 A group of students are on vacation, and they sing and dance their way around the U.S.
comedy	2 It's the year 2136. The people on planet Zog want to return to Earth. But what will happen when they go back?
documentary	3 The president of South Anglia will answer questions about the future of this new country and her decision to become president.
drama	4 The whole town is terrified, and no one can go out after dark. Dracula is back, and he wants blood. Tonight.
game show	5 One of these six students could win $500,000 tonight. But they must first complete these difficult challenges.
musical	6 Teresa must decide whether to go to the big city to follow her dreams or stay in her small town and care for her elderly parents.
science fiction	7 A chef wants to build an underwater restaurant, and she thinks of some very funny ways of getting the money.
thriller

VOCABULARY REVIEW

TV shows and movies

Think of an example for each kind of movie. Tell your partner which one is your favorite and why.

	Movie type	Example
1	science fiction	Star Wars
2	comedy
3	horror
4	drama
5	animated movie
6	thriller

Comparison

Bob is as tall as Sally.
Jane is not so tall as Bob.

GRAMMAR REVIEW

Comparisons with “(not) as... as”

Reach each false statement. Change one or two words in each statement to make it true. Use “(not) as... as.”

- 1 Tablet screens are as big as TV screens.
- 2 Birds can fly as fast as planes.
- 3 Movies are as long as series.
- 4 Mexico is as big as Canada.
- 5 A lake has as much water as an ocean.
- 6 Buses have as many seats as trains.
- 7 Socks are as expensive as shoes.
- 8 Running is as easy as walking.

GRAMMAR REVIEW

Comparisons with “(not) as... as”

Read the sentences. Restate them using “(not) as... as.”

- 1 The first season was better than the second season.
- 2 The movie is more exciting than the book.
- 3 My brother watches more movies at home than me.
- 4 I enjoy watching both thrillers and dramas.
- 5 Reality shows are more interesting than romantic comedies.
- 6 The scenery and the music were both beautiful.
- 7 Seeing a movie in the theater costs more than seeing a movie at home.
- 8 The second movie has more special effects than the first movie.

The second season wasn't as good as the first season.

