GE7 UNIT 2 TIME TO CELEBRATE 5

1. Read and match the stages of life and the ages:

middle-aged	in your mid-teens	elderly	in your early teens	child
pre-teen	in your early twenties	in your late twenties	preschooler	adult
baby/ infant		in your late teens	toddler	teenager
in your mid-thirties	in your mid-twenties	in your late thirties	in your early thirties

Childhood	Teenage years	Adulthood
0-1: _____	9-12: _____	18 and above: _____
1-2: _____	13-19: _____	20-23: _____
3- 4: _____	12-14: _____	24- 26: _____
5- 9: _____	14-16: _____	27- 29: _____
	16- 19: _____	30- 33: _____
		34- 36: _____
		36- 39: _____
		40-60: _____
		80 and above: _____

2. Fill in the missing words, then complete the sentences using the words:

Verbs	Nouns
welcome	_____	Chinese people celebrate the spring festival as it marks the _____ of spring.
_____	symbol
celebrate	_____	During the festival of Diwali, people _____ their homes and _____ small oil lamps called diyas.
_____	light
_____	decoration	Some people say Russian blinis are a _____ of the sun.
arrive	_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Add the appropriate extra information from the box to the middle of each sentence, using which, who, or whose. There is one example:

It's a city in Colombia.	It's held in February or March.	She lives in Germany.
It's on the top floor.	Her parents are from Kenya.	It's pricey.

E.g.: Our room has a view of the city. => Our room, which is on the top floor, has a view of the city.

My sister is a civil engineer. _____

The carnival attracts visitors from all over the country.

_____

Charles and Keith's car is a Porsche 911.

_____

Cartagena has an international film festival.

_____

Rosa speaks both English and Swahili fluently.

_____

4. Read and complete the sentences with the suitable words.

Where's Luke? He's waiting for you _____ the library. _____ New Year's Eve, some Christians attend a watchnight service. _____ midnight _____ December 31st, it is traditional in Cuba to eat 12 grapes to make 12 wishes come true. It's _____ to hear that you're getting married next month. (excite) Everybody was _____ by John's performance. (amuse) Has the cat scratched you _____? My little sister is _____ in drawing insects. Sorry, we have _____ heard from her lately. I've never _____breakfast this late.	What time _____she get home last night? We didn't _____ badminton with Jason last week. The Portuguese girl, _____mother passed away last year, is an only child. I think you _____ give them red roses in stead of white ones. I _____ at the park with Michael 2 hours ago. Your cousin is your _____ or aunt's child. We got lost on our walk because the directions were so _____. (confuse) We rode in a horse -_____ sleigh to get to the church. That is the tree under _____ we found the missing child. Hang _____ a minute, I need to tell my mom something before we leave.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. You've had an email from a distant relative who is researching your family history. Write your reply.

Dear Khang/ Linh/ Lam, Could you tell me anything you know about the family? What are your grandparents' names? Where were they born? Are you named after anyone in the family? I'd love to know about any relatives your have in other countries. Looking forward to hearing from you. Cheers, Sonya

LIVEWORKSHEETS