

EXERCISE

1. If a person was guilty of committing a crime, then he or she goes to _____ prison.
2. When you are ill you stay at _____ home in _____ bed.
3. When you clean your wardrobe, you just put your clothes onto _____ bed.
4. Little children do not go to _____ school, they live at _____ home with their parents.
5. Parents sometimes go to _____ school to find out things about the behavior of their children who have reached school age.
6. As I have reached school age I must go to _____ school.
7. As _____ school is rather far my father usually drives me there.
8. If he wants then he goes to _____ school together with me and meets my teachers.
9. Then he goes to _____ work.
10. There is _____ nice church not far from my house.

EXERCISE

1. We go to _____ church on Sundays and at Christmas.
2. My granny is too old and she does not go _____ church any more.
3. In fact she spends all of her time at _____.
4. Once she wanted to leave us and to go to live in _____ home, but we protested and she remained with us at our _____ home.
5. When people are ill they have to go to _____ hospital.
6. To tell the truth I do not like going to _____ hospital I prefer to stay in _____ bed at _____ home.
7. Once I went to _____ hospital to visit my aunt.
8. Even though I was not ill, when I entered _____ hospital I felt so sick, that I almost needed a doctor myself.
9. If you commit a crime then you are sent to _____ prison.
10. Sometimes when people are in _____ prison they feel social isolation.

EXERCISE

1. Even their relatives do not come to _____ prison to visit them.
2. It is a serious problem as it is very difficult to integrate a person after he or she has been in _____ prison.
3. Most of the people have never even been in _____ prison on an excursion and they do not know anything about it.
4. When I feel sick I stay in _____ bed.
5. There are some clothes on _____ bed.
6. I need to buy _____ new bed.
7. What color is _____ bed in your room?
8. A: Where is Tim? B: He is in _____ bed sleeping.
9. I am tired. I think I will go to _____ bed.