PAST CONTINUOUS FOR INTERRUPTED ACTIONS

DAILY ROUTINES

We use Past Continuous with the Simple past when a long action is interrupted by a short action.

We use the word when to link the two actions.

GUIDE: Subject + was/were + verb-ing (long action in past continuous) + (object) + when + subject + verb (short action in past simple)

Complete the following sentences with either Past continuous or simple past verb forms:

(1) I (sleep) when my brother, John, (wake) me up.
(2) We (eat) breakfast when we (see) we were late to school.
(3) Mom (panic) when we (remember) it was Saturday.
(4) I (go) back to bed when my cat (want) to play.
(5) John and I (leave) for the shops when it (start) to rain.
(6) My friends (come) over when I (remember) I still had to do my homework.
(7) We (play) soccer outside when it (start) to storm.
(8) John (ride) his bike when he (hear) a dog bark.
(9) Mom (make) dinner when dad (come) home from work.
(10) We (eat) dinner when my grandpa (visit) us.

LIVEWORKSHEETS