

What's your opinion about

Name: _____

Class: _____

Choose the best answer a, b, c, or d from the following questions.

1. Anya: Holiday will come for this semester, what are your ideas on holiday?

Indah:.....

Anya: I do hope you have a nice trip

a: I dont have any idea

b: I am busy

c: The place is not intresting

d: I think I am going to go to Labuan Bajo

2. Angga: I think our city is saved from the virus, so we can go around.

Ina: but I dont think so..... Our city isn't saved. we must stay at home

a: I dont agree

b: In my opinion

c: Great idea

d: See you later

3. Andy: After work i feel really tired and I get dizzy

Jim:..... and if it's not necessary you dont leave the bed

a: You must watch tv

b: I think you should lie down and have bed rest time

What's your opinion about

c: she would take a rest

d: you have to take some drink

4. Gem: May I know what do you think about my outfit today?

Ann: I think you look really stunning.

Gem: Ahh, thank you

Ann: Anytime

c: Asking for an opinion

From the dialog above we know Gem is...

d: Giving directions

a: Giving an opinion

b: Asking for attention

5. Sista: about the math test?

Geez: It's too hard to do, I couldn't answer number 3 .

a: In your opinion

b: Do you agree

c: Asking for attention

d: What do you think

e: To be honest

The Present Simple Practice

Complete the questions with the present simple form of the verbs.

6 Which day of the weekshe go to the yoga class?

On Thursdays.

7 What time does.....?

I think it's 5 o'clock on weekdays.

8 Do a cup of coffee? You look tired.

No, I'm OK thanks.

9 Does shop sell stamps?

No, only postcards.

10 Where keep her phone charger?

On the shelf beside the TV.

does your sister

you want

the souvenir

the bank shut

does

PODCAST

Nathan: Hello and welcome back to our beloved listeners! This is the 8-minute English Podcast series on the learn English podcast channel. I'm your host, Nathan, and it's a pleasure to have you with us again. How long do you think your studies will last? Are you someone who thinks learning has an end, or do you think learning is a lifelong thing? There are many(11) surrounding this. Everyone has their own point of view. Today we're diving into a topic that many of you might relate to. "I'm too old to learn something new?" We have a special conversation between Emily a 25-year-old English teacher, and her 50-year-old aunt, Gorya. They will be discussing the topic of whether it's too late to learn something new. Now grab your favorite beverage, settle in and start another thrilling English learning adventure. Let's dive in.

Emily: I'm glad you joined my English course. You know, learning at this age is very wonderful and(12)

Gorya: I'm also very happy to study with you. There are a lot of new things that I haven't tried before.

Emily: There are some ideas saying that only young people can learn new things. What do you think about it?

Gorya: I used to think that way, but now I don't(13) it at all. When I decided to learn English, I was worried about my age. I also used to be afraid of people looking at me negatively. But when I saw a video on TV about the education of older people, I got (14) again.

Emily: What benefits have you experienced from learning something new at your age?

Gorya: Learning English keeps my mind active which is very important as get older. I also felt more socially connected. Meeting new friends in my classes. It's a great way to stay(15) and feel happy.

Emily: That's wonderful to hear. Keeping the mind active is important and the social(16) are a big bonus too. Many older adults still feel scared or doubt their abilities when starting something new. How did you overcome those feelings?

Gorya: I realized everyone start(17). Setting small, achievable goals has helped and your support has made a big difference. Celebrating each small success keeps me motivated.

Emily: Do you know any success stories of people who started learning something new later in life?

Gorya: Yes. My friend Jane started learning to play the piano at 55. Now she even performs at local events. It's very inspiring.

Emily: That's amazing. There are also many famous examples, like Julia Child who started cooking in her late 30s and became a famous chef in her 50s. It shows that it's never too late to start something new. So in addition to classwork, what(18) and(19) did you find most helpful while learning English?

Gorya: I used online platforms like Duolingo and Babbel. They're user-friendly and great for daily practice. I also asked my son to teach me some difficult phrases.

Emily: That's wonderful. We can learn from many different sources, not only from books, but also from our(20). When I was a child, I also learned English, mainly from my

Drag your right answer to the question

21. Which of the following indicates emotive language?
22. Which word is kind of abstract noun?
23. “Now grab your favorite beverage, settle in and start another thrilling English learning adventure”
The synonyms of the words “thrilling” are ?
24. “But when I saw a video on tv about the education of older people, I got motivated again”
What kind of tense that used on the sentence above?
25. What type of podcast that used in Emily and Gorya conversation?
26. What are the benefits of learning something new in life later age?
27. The sentences below mostly use?
- I’m glad you joined my English course.
 - Learning English keeps my mind active which is very important as get older.
 - I’m also very happy to study with you.
28. From the script, we know Gorya is
29. Based on the arguments presented in the podcast, what kind of evidence is mostly used to support the argument?
30. “ There are some ideas saying that only young people can learn new things.”
Which one the word of this sentence indicate modal auxiliary?

Wonderful
Goals
Enchanting
Keeps mind active
Can

Scared
Breathtaking
The podcast guest
Personal experience

More socially connected
Simple past tense
Simple present tense
Interview podcast