

Peter Pan

Chapter one

The Nursery

Wendy, John and Michael Darling _____ in a lovely house in London. They have got a big, sunny _____. There are colourful pictures and a big clock on the wall. There are toys here and there. The Darlings _____ a happy family. Mr Darling and Mrs Darling love their children very much. Wendy is the first child, John is the second and Michael is the _____. The children's nanny is called Nana and she is a big Newfoundland dog! Her _____ is in the nursery and she is a wonderful nanny. She _____ the children and the children love her.

One evening Mr and Mrs Darling want to go to a dinner party. They have their best clothes on.

'Nana, it's time to put the children to bed,' says Mrs Darling. Nana goes to the bathroom. She turns on the hot water for Michael's bath. She puts her _____ in the water to check the temperature. It's _____!

'I don't want to have a bath!' says little Michael.

But Nana is a _____ nanny and Michael has his bath.

Then Nana gives the children their _____. Now they are ready for bed.

Mrs Darling comes into the nursery and smiles. 'Good work, Nana! I see the children are ready for bed.' Nana wags her big _____.

Suddenly there is a noise. Mrs Darling sees a young boy outside the nursery window. She is very surprised. Nana _____ and shuts the window quickly. The boy's _____ falls on the floor. The young boy flies away. 'Who's there?' asks Mrs Darling. She opens the window and looks outside, but she sees nothing. Then she sees the boy's shadow on the floor and says, 'Poor boy, this is his shadow. Let's put it in the _____.'

The children are in bed. Mr Darling takes Nana to the garden. Then he _____ to the sitting room and waits for Mrs Darling. Mrs Darling sings to the children and kisses them. She is a perfect mother. Soon the three children are sleeping. Mr and Mrs Darling go to their bedroom. They put on their coats and go to the dinner party.