

Complete each tense

1. To cause a change in someone or something.
2. News about an important event breaks, it becomes known.
3. Something that happens as a result of something else.
4. Rules or standards that you use when making a decision or judgement.
5. Very important
6. The ordinary people in a country.
7. A story in a newspaper interesting.
8. The effect or influence the something or someone has.
9. Important or interesting enough to reported as new.
10. To make a decision based on facts.
11. Well-know or important.
12. Making you feel sad, sympathetic or grateful.