

My name's Ash and I go to school in the UK. I always have lunch with my friend Callum.

My dad makes my lunch every morning. Today, I've got sandwiches, an apple and a yoghurt. Callum has a hot lunch from the school kitchen every day. Now, he's got a burger, a banana and orange juice.

We have lunch at half past twelve. We eat our lunch and then we usually play football in the playground. On Fridays, we have art club at lunchtime, so we don't play football. Callum is good at drawing and I like painting.
