

What is the meaning of the expression in the conversation?

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| a. "Many individuals struggle to make up their minds when faced with choices, such as purchasing items."   | 1. To feel extremely anxious or bored.                              |
| b. "In discussions about finances, some people mention that they can afford to enjoy various experiences, but they still mind their expenses ."  | 2. To decide on something after consideration.                      |
| c. "It is common for individuals to wish that others would mind their own business , particularly when personal inquiries arise."                | 3. To care about or pay attention to something.                     |
| d. "When considering invitations for vacations, many find themselves of two minds about attending, weighing fun against other commitments."      | 4. To focus on one's own affairs; not interfere in others' matters. |
| e. "After a stressful period, many believe that a good night out can help to take their minds off pressing responsibilities."                    | 5. To distract from worries or problems.                            |
| f. "In monotonous jobs, individuals often express that they might go out of their minds with boredom if they don't seek change."                 | 6. To feel uncertain or indecisive about something.                 |
| g. "It's often said that ' Great minds think alike !' when people find they share similar thoughts or approaches."                               | 7. Mental strength can overcome physical challenges.                |
| h. "Some people ponder whether healing is truly a matter of mind over matter , emphasizing the connection between mental attitude and recovery." | 8. Something not currently being thought about or is low priority.  |
| i. "During stressful times, the idea of a vacation can often feel like the last thing on one's mind , as daily challenges take priority."        | 9. Intelligent people often have similar ideas.                     |

LATEST BLOG POSTS

alike   ~~up~~   off   on   out over   own   two

- a make up your mind
- b mind your _____ business
- c I'm of _____ minds
- d take your mind _____ something
- e go _____ of your mind
- f Great minds think _____.
- g mind _____ matter
- h the last thing _____ my mind

Life in Paris, Part 2: Only One Month Left

The Best Tour Companies in Europe in 2019

Desc

Read and complete

- a Vacations? You want to plan a vacation?
I'm sorry, that really is the last thing on my mind
right now.
- b I don't mean to sound rude, but you know, she really does ask too many personal questions.
I wish she'd learn to _____
_____.
- c I'm _____
about this job offer. I really don't know what to do.
They want an answer today but I need more time to think.
- d Come on, we can do it. Let's give it one more try.
Jon, you take that side, I'll take this one.
And remember, it's a question of _____
_____.
- e _____! I'm tired of waiting for you to choose.
- f Hey! Is that your new cell phone? I have exactly the same one. Well, you know what they say,
_____.
- g Where have you been? Do you know what time it is? I was _____ with worry!
- h Come on! Let's go away for a couple of days. It'll help you _____ things.