

Top 10 most expensive liquids in the world!

1. Watch the video and write down any words or expressions you don't know:

Key Vocabulary:

- 1 Liquid: A substance that flows and has no fixed shape but has a definite volume (e.g., water, oil).
  - Example: Water is a common liquid.
- 2 Expensive: Costing a lot of money.
  - Example: Gold is very expensive.
- 3 Venom: A poisonous substance produced by some animals, such as snakes and spiders, used to attack or defend.
  - Example: Snake venom can be dangerous.
- 4 Insulin: A hormone made by the pancreas that helps control blood sugar levels in the body.
  - Example: People with diabetes may need insulin to manage their condition.
- 5 Perfumery: The art or business of making perfumes.
  - Example: The perfumery industry creates many different scents.
- 6 Economic value: The worth of a product based on its ability to meet needs and wants in the market.
  - Example: Some liquids have high economic value because they are rare or useful.
- 7 Rare: Not common or not found in large amounts.
  - Example: Some rare liquids are very valuable.
- 8 Production: The process of making or creating something.
  - Example: The production of honey involves bees working together.

Simplified Transcript:*MOST EXPENSIVE LIQUIDS*1 Introduction to Liquids:

- Many liquids are very valuable. Some are very expensive.

2 Most Expensive Liquids:

- One of the most expensive liquids is venom from snakes and scorpions. This venom is used in medicine.

3 Insulin:

- Insulin is another expensive liquid. People with diabetes need it to help control their blood sugar.

4 Perfumes:

- Some perfumes are very costly. They are made from special oils and ingredients.

5 Economic Value:

- The economic value of a liquid depends on how useful it is and how rare it is.

6 Conclusion:

- These liquids show that some substances can be both useful and expensive.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Answer the following questions.
Try to give as much detail as you can with examples or stories

Which liquid from the video surprised you the most? Why?

1. -

Why do you think human blood is so expensive, even though it's not rare?

2. -

Have you ever heard of insulin? What do you think about its high cost for people with diabetes?

3. -

Do you think it's worth paying a lot of money for things like perfume? Why or why not?

4. -

If you could choose one of these expensive liquids, which one would you want to try (if it were safe)? Why?

5. -