

GRAMMAR BOX: MODAL AUXILIARY VERBS FOR GIVING ADVICE

must

You should tell your mom about your grades.

have to

LANGUAGE USAGE

should is used when giving advice.

should is used when giving advice.

ought to is used when giving suggestions.

GRAMMAR STRUCTURE: MODAL AUXILIARY VERBS

POSITIVE SENTENCES

Kit should go to school.

Marie must finish her homework

you have to be more careful

NEGATIVE SENTENCES

Kit shouldn't skip class.

you must not drink and drive

They don't have to come today

INTERROGATIVE SENTENCES

Should Kit go to school?

must they show their IDs?

Do I have to be in the meeting?

VOCABULARY BOX: PARTS OF THE BODY

shoulder(s)

elbow(s)

neck(s)

knee(s)

leg(s)

foot (feet)

hand(s)

arm(s)

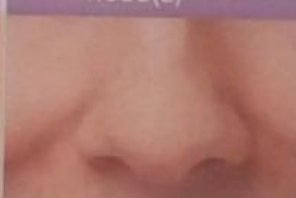

blood

eye(s)

nose(s)

tooth (teeth)

READING COMPREHENSION: LENDING A HAND

3

Fill in the corresponding part of the body according to the options given in the vocabulary box.

VOCABULARY BOX

arms

neck

knees

hand

Teagan: Could I give you a (A.) with your books?

Nova: I accept your help with open (B.)

Teagan: I'm on my (C.) I thought the class would never end!

Nova: Sure. The new teacher is a pain in the (D.)

Practice 61