Hi Grandpa,

Sorry, I can't come with Mum and Dad to see you on Friday. I <sup>1</sup> am going (go) on a day trip to Stratford-on-Avon with my school. Mr Harris, our English teacher, and Mrs Thompson, our History teacher <sup>2</sup> ..... (take) us. Some kids in my class don't want to go – they aren't interested in Shakespeare – but I can't wait! I love day trips and best of all: no lessons!!

We <sup>3</sup> ..... (meet) at school at 7 o'clock so I have to wake up an hour earlier. Mum <sup>4</sup> ..... (make) me sandwiches because it's a long journey from London to Stratford. The coach <sup>5</sup> ..... (leave) at seven thirty and <sup>6</sup> ..... (arrive) in Stratford at about ten thirty.

We <sup>7</sup> ..... (have) lunch in Stratford. In the afternoon we <sup>8</sup> ..... (watch) a Shakespeare play – A Midsummer Night's Dream. We're studying it at school this term. It's a comedy but the language is sometimes difficult to understand. The play <sup>9</sup> ..... (finish) at six and the coach <sup>10</sup> ..... (return) to London at about nine thirty.

See you next week. I'll tell you all about it then!

Dan
