Hi Stacy,

How are you? The new school is OK, and the people here are nice, especially one girl – Debbie.

You see, Debbie is into heavy metal music, and she plays in a band. Usually after school, I go to sit in on their rehearsal and I listen while they practise. They're really fantastic.

Next week, Debbie is taking me to a Metallica concert. They're her favourite band.

Let me also tell you about the dress code at the new school: it's quite formal. Girls mustn't wear make-up or paint their nails, and boys mustn't wear shorts.

So how is your new school? Write back soon!

Hugs, M.

IMAGE MAKERS AND TRENDSETTERS

Have you ever wondered why one year home design is all about glass and steel and the next it's bare bricks and vintage sofas? <sup>1</sup>_____ And why was bottle green in last winter but this season everything from hats to pants is dark burgundy? Oh, and what's with the funny looking glasses, everyone? In other words, how much of what we and our homes look like is actually dictated by our personal taste?

At first glance – not much. The baby industry seems to believe in gender colour-coding and, as a result, armies of poor little boys and girls end up dressed alike in their blue and pink gender betraying uniforms. Yet there are mothers who campaign against it and others who boycott shops and hand-sew brightly coloured clothes themselves. <sup>2</sup>_____

They are defined months in advance by institutions such as Pantone's Color Institute and all clothing companies fall in line. But do you have to follow them as well?

True, magazines such as Vogue, Elle, GQ, or Men's Health promote these set trends. However, the Internet offers an alternative source of inspiration for fashion rebels and dreamers: fashion bloggers. <sup>3</sup>_____ Such bloggers, some in their teens or early twenties, offer pointers on how to mix and match chain store clothing with cool accessories or treasures found in second-hand shops. Of course, some traditionalists will take a whole article to tell you about 10 ways to wear a turtleneck with style. Yet there are also visionaries of both sexes (because fashion is not only for girls anymore) who present outfits pairing colours, patterns and clothes of different styles that shouldn't work together and yet somehow they do. So if you're still looking for your own style, click away: get inspired and start experimenting!

- A These clothes often resemble those from the designer brands we see in fashion magazines and on websites but are much cheaper.
- B The colour schemes for over-five-year-olds, on the other hand, are uniform regardless of sex, but they change on an annual basis.
- C Those with the most unique and innovative ideas have thousands of followers who get inspired by them – earning them the name 'trendsetters'.
- D So the question is, how do you create your own unique style in this pre-programmed world?
- E Then there's the concept of 'blue for the boys and pink for the girls' which, though familiar to us all, no one can really explain.
