2 Look at the text about four cities below. According to each writer, what makes his/her city great?

I ♥ MY CITY

With Melbourne topping the list of the best cities in the world to live, we celebrate cities everywhere, and invite you to share what you love about your city. #whatmakesyourcitygreat

What I love most about this city are the parks and green spaces. When you have a little free time, there's always an open space, urban park, or secret garden nearby where you can go to relax. One really interesting project, the High Line, is a 2.3 km. long park built on an elevated section of a former railway line. It's a wonderful pedestrian area and has fabulous views of the Hudson River, Manhattan, and the New York City skyline.

The nightlife here is amazing. There are plenty of places to go and things to do in the evening, with thousands of cafés, restaurants, and nightclubs. But what I like best about Tokyo are the unusual places to eat out. Last week, I had dinner at the seafood restaurant Zauo, where the tables are on a boat and you catch your own fish from the aquarium, which the chefs then cook for you. It was lots of fun!

Klaus

In most big cities, there aren't enough roads that are safe for bicycling. But here in Copenhagen, there are over 400 km. of bike paths, so you can ride everywhere with no danger, avoiding traffic jams and staying in shape at the same time. There aren't many people who regularly use a car here – in fact, most people go to work or school by bike or on foot. Some use the Cycle Snake, an elevated bike path over the harbor. It was built especially for bicyclists, and the views from it are spectacular!

Lola

New Orleans sure has rhythm! You hear live music on almost every street: there's always a jazz band playing, or a few musicians jamming together in a café or on a street corner. My favorite time of year is Mardi Gras – the famous carnival celebration with music and colorful parades. Some people complain that there are too many tourists here at Mardi Gras, but I think everyone should be able to see the greatest free show on Earth!

Melbourne number 1, again!

Melbourne has come first again in the list of the best places to live. Only ¹ _____ cities like Zurich and Vancouver have come first more than once, but Melbourne has won it for the fifth consecutive year! It's such an interesting and vibrant city, with ² _____ things to do. The climate is great – it's never ³ _____ hot or cold, which makes it perfect for strolling around the harbor or the pedestrian areas downtown and admiring the colorful street art. If you like ⁴ _____ culture, spend a day exploring the city's museums, art galleries, and the Arts Centre, which looks like the Eiffel Tower! Getting around is easy, too, but with more than a million people driving into the city every day, there are ⁵ _____ traffic jams and ⁶ _____ parking spaces. Taking the streetcar is easy and convenient, though.
