

Identifying Paragraph Types

Read the following paragraphs. Identify the type of paragraph (Introduction, Body, Descriptive, Narrative, Expository, Persuasive, or Conclusion) and explain your choice.

1. Paragraph 1: "The smell of fresh bread wafted through the kitchen, filling the air with warmth. The golden-brown loaves sat cooling on the counter, their crusts crackling softly. Outside, the autumn wind howled, but inside, everything was peaceful."

Type: _____

Reason:

2. Paragraph 2: "In today's world, social media plays a significant role in connecting people. It allows individuals to stay in touch, share updates, and interact with a wide audience. However, excessive use can also lead to negative impacts, such as decreased face-to-face interactions and increased stress."

Type: _____

Reason:

3. Paragraph 3: "There are three main reasons why exercise is essential for maintaining good health. First, it strengthens the cardiovascular system. Second, it improves mental health by reducing stress and anxiety. Finally, regular exercise boosts energy levels, making it easier to perform daily tasks."

Type: _____

Reason:

4. Paragraph 4: "The time had come. Sara took a deep breath and stepped onto the stage. The spotlight hit her, and for a moment, she froze. But then, she remembered all the practice, all the hours spent rehearsing. With determination, she began to speak, her voice steady and strong."

Type: _____

Reason: