

Choose the correct alternative in each sentence

Direct speech	Indirect speech
'I've never seen this before'	She said she ... before a. Had never seen that b. Has never seen that c. Had never seen those
'I had a few pets when I was a child'	She told us she ... a child a. Had a few pets when she had been b. Had had a few pets when she was c. Had had a few pets when she had been
'I can't run 10 km'	She said ... 10 km a. She can not run b. She couldn't run c. She can't run d. She cannot run e. She cannot ran
'I'll get you something to drink'	She said she ... something to drink a. She will get you b. She would get you c. She would get me
'My brother left yesterday'	She told me ... a. Her brother had left the day before b. His brother left the day before c. My brother had left the previous day
'I haven't spoken to my family for a long time'	She told us ... for a long time a. She hasn't spoken to my family b. She haven't spoken to your family c. She hadn't spoke to her family d. She hadn't spoken to her family
'It must be a difficult thing to do'	She supposed ... difficult thing to do a. It must be a b. It has to be a c. It will be a
'Why don't we leave?'	She suggested ... a. Leaving b. To leave c. Leave d. Left
'Start now'	She recommended ... a. To start now b. To start then c. Starting then
'Where are you going?'	She asked ... going a. Where was I b. Where I was c. If where I was
'When will you stop?'	She wanted to know ... a. When I would stop b. When I will stop c. When I stop
'Let's finish this now'	She suggested a. Finishing that then b. To finish that then c. That we finishing that then d. That we finish this now e. Finish this now