What a night! I have now done my first ever show as a fashion model! Before the show, I was <sup>1</sup>a lot / quite more nervous than I expected. I could hardly put my clothes on, my hands were shaking so much! The clothes were amazing – <sup>2</sup>much / lot more colourful than I usually wear. I felt like a celebrity! Walking out in front of the audience was actually OK – it wasn't <sup>3</sup>much / quite as scary as I thought it would be. Going across the stage was fine but getting up and down the steps was a bit <sup>4</sup>as / more difficult because of the high heels I was wearing. I'm so glad I did it, though. I feel much <sup>5</sup>confident / more confident than before, and I know I'm not <sup>6</sup>as famous as / more famous the models in the fashion magazines yet, but since I took part one or two people have recognised me and said I did well!
