

NATURAL SCIENCES

UNIT 3: BODY SYSTEMS

1. Label the organs of these systems. Choose the correct option.

2. Choose the name of the correct system.

- a) The _____ breaks food down into small particles called nutrients
- b) The _____ eliminates the waste products from our body.
- c) The _____ is a transport system that takes blood to all parts of the body.
- d) The _____ is made up of the nostrils, the windpipe, the two bronchi and the two lungs.

3. Write true or false.

- a) The esophagus is a long tube. Food goes down here to the stomach.
- b) The anus is like a bag. The food stays here for about three hours.
- c) The urine leaves the body through the urethra.
- d) You have got two bladders.
- e) Veins carry blood from the heart to the rest of our bodies.
- f) The heart is a hollow muscular pump that pumps blood around the body.
- g) The main part of the circulatory system is the lungs.
- h) The respiratory system takes carbon dioxide from the air and expels oxygen.
- i) We have one nostril and one windpipe.
- j) The lungs are hard and rigid.

4. Order the steps of the digestion.

The stomach turns the food into a thick liquid.
The food goes to the esophagus.
The waste is eliminated by the large intestine.
The liquid goes to the small intestine.
The teeth break the food.
It absorbs the nutrients.
The saliva mixes the food.
Then it goes to the stomach.
The liquid goes to the large intestine.