Surviving an Earthquake

The Tan family was thrilled to be on holiday in Indonesia. They (0) was having a wonderful time swimming at the sunny beaches and eating delicious food. However, one day, as (9) them were exploring a local market, the ground suddenly started shaking. At first, they didn't (10) understanding what was happening, but then they realised it was an earthquake! Panic set in as people (11) across them screamed and ran for safety. The Tan family held onto each other (12) tight, trying to stay calm. They quickly found a sturdy table to hide under, hoping it would protect them from falling debris. The children were scared, but their parents assured them that everything (13) might be okay. The Tan family prayed and sang songs to distract themselves while they (14) waiting for the shaking to stop. Finally, the earthquake ended, and the Tan family (15) emerges from their hiding spot. They were shaken (16) or unharmed. The family were grateful to be safe and together. They knew they would always remember their holiday in Indonesia, even if it had a scary moment.
