

Complete the sentences with the words (rationale, distracted, poll, tolerate, refrain, reiterate, contradiction, fault, pertinent, commitment) and the correct form.

1. He decided to from constantly checking his social media.
2. She was so by the sound of a dripping faucet that she could not concentrate on what she was reading.
3. She has so many work that she rarely spends time at home.
4. The court will have to decide who was at and caused the accident.
5. The price of an article is often to a person's decision to buy it or not.
6. An opinion is one method used to find out what people think of government policies.
7. In order to get his message across, he had to it a few times until everybody understood.
8. The behind the decision was based on research and not emotion.
9. We have to people's quirks in order to live together in harmony.
10. There is a between his words and his actions, and people feel that he cannot be trusted.