Fill in the blanks with the appropriate verb or phrase from the list below.

envy, upset, show feelings, hide feelings, get annoyed with

1 Sarah often _____ her sister's ability to play the piano so well, even though she doesn't admit it.

2 Tim was really _____ when he found out he failed the exam and needed some time alone.

3 During the movie, Anna didn't _____ her emotions. Everyone could see she was moved by the sad scene.

4 Even though he was hurt by the criticism, James tried to _____ and kept smiling through the meeting.

5 Tom tends to _____ his noisy neighbours when they throw parties late at night.

Complete the sentences with the correct preposition.

1 John is really scared_____ spiders. He screams whenever he sees one.

2 I am fed up _____ this noisy city. I need a break in the countryside.

3 She gets pissed_____ when her brother used her laptop without asking.

4 After class, James decided to walk _____ to his teacher to ask a question.

5 I'm not really in the mood _____ pizza tonight. How about we have some pasta instead?

Choose the correct adjective from the list to complete each sentence.

delighted, embarrassed, furious, miserable, pleased

1 When her friends threw a surprise party for her, she was absolutely _____.

2 Tom was _____ when his phone rang loudly during the meeting, and everyone looked at him.

3 The traffic jam made Sarah _____ because it caused her to miss her flight.

4 After losing his job, Paul felt _____ for weeks and didn't want to leave the house.

5 Mary was _____ with the service at the restaurant; everything was perfect.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Imagine yourself in each situation below and write a sentence using the correct adjective from the list.

relaxed, emotional, envious, moody, stressful

1 You are on a quiet beach, lying on a sunbed, with no worries in the world.
How would you feel?
Write a sentence using the adjective:

2 Your best friend just bought a new car, but you can't afford one right now.
How would you feel?
Write a sentence using the adjective:

3 You're planning a big family event, and there's too much to organize in a short time.
How would you feel?
Write a sentence using the adjective:

4 You've been watching a movie that brings back memories from your childhood and makes you teary-eyed.
How would you feel?
Write a sentence using the adjective:

5 After a long day, you realize you've been irritated by small things all day.
How would you feel?
Write a sentence using the adjective:

LIVEWORKSHEETS