Listening Comprehension

Level: B1

Listen to the audio carefully and do the following tasks.
You can listen to the audio more than once if needed.

1. Which country is described as having a strong reputation for research into the environment and sports science?

a) USA b) Australia c) UK d) New Zealand

2. What is a unique feature of New Zealand's educational system?

a) Focus on literature
b) Practical component in degree programmes
c) Foundation courses for international students
d) Informal classes

3. Which of the following values is emphasized in the USA's education system?

a) Cultural diversity b) Individual responsibility
c) Historical literature d) Low living costs

4. Which city is NOT mentioned as a world-class city in Canada?

a) Vancouver b) Toronto c) Montreal d) Ottawa

5. What is required for international students to apply for foundation courses in the UK?

a) TOEFL exam b) IELTS exam c) SAT exam d) GRE exam

1. True/False Australia is known for its high level of public safety and cultural diversity.
2. True/False The UK offers a university system with a focus on environmental research.
3. True/False New Zealand's educational programmes are based on the American system.
4. True/False Canadian degrees are not well regarded in academic circles around the globe.
5. True/False The USA has a single official language.

Give a short answer

1. Name two of Canada's largest cities mentioned in the audio

2. What do American students need to have responsibility for according to the audio?

3. What opportunity does studying and living in Canada provide regarding languages?

LIVEWORKSHEETS