INSPIRED TOTS EARLY LEARNING CENTER
FIRST CONTINUOUS ASSESSMENT 2024/2025 SESSION

Agricultural Science Grade 4

1. The thin outer layer of the earth is referred to as _____.
2. The mixture of minerals, organic materials, air and water produces _____.
3. The major role of soil is that it is the medium for plant growth. TRUE/FALSE
4. The presence of the topsoil, sand, gravel and bedrock produce what we call a soil _____.
5. Crops can be classified into _____ (a) 2 (b) 3 (c) 5 (d) 4
6. Crops that have only one seed leaf are called _____ while crops with two seed leaves are called _____.
7. Annual crops are crops that grow and mature in two planting seasons. TRUE/FALSE
8. Biennial crops are crops that grow and mature in 3 to 5 planting seasons. TRUE/FALSE
9. Annual crops include maize, beans, groundnut, soyabean and millet. TRUE/FALSE
10. The types of crops that we eat are referred to as _____ crops (a) forage crops (b) ornamental crops (c) cash crops (d) food crops
11. Forage crops are crops that are used to decorate the environment TRUE/FALSE
12. The type of crops that are eaten by animals are called _____ (a) forage crops (b) ornamental crops (c) cash crops (d) food crops
13. Grouping of crops according to their forms can be done in _____ ways. (a) 2 (b) 3 (c) 5 (d) 3
14. Grouping of crops according to their life span can be done in _____ ways. (a) 3 (b) 4 (c) 5 (d) 2
15. Which of the following is not an annual crop based on life cycle? (a) maize (b) vegetable (c) groundnut (d) onion
16. Fill in the classification of plants in the table below according to the labels.

According to forms	According to life span	According to uses
1.	1.	1.
2.	2.	2.
	3.	3.
		4.

LIVEWORKSHEETS