

Complete the text with the preposition + noun phrases:

under pressure	at last	on the other hand	in common	under control in doubt	for the time being	for good	For one thing	by accident on second thoughts	under age	on the whole	of interest

Hello everyone! 🙋

Do you ever wonder if watching television or surfing the Internet is more useful? While both can be entertaining, their purposes might be quite different. _____ (1), television provides a range of shows that we can watch at any time. These shows are often created with viewers _____ (2), but sometimes we stumble upon something interesting _____ (3).

The Internet, _____ (4), is a vast place where you can find information _____ (5) on almost any topic. It's incredible to have all this knowledge at our fingertips! However, it's important to use it responsibly, especially since not everything online is true. If you ever feel _____ (6) about what you've read, it's good to do a bit more research.

There are concerns about children's use of both media, particularly when they are _____ (7). Parents are usually _____ (8) to monitor what their children watch and the sites they visit. While this might feel overwhelming, it's necessary to keep everything _____ (9).

Sometimes people think one type of media is better than the other, but _____ (10), both have their advantages and disadvantages. If you get tired of one, switching to the other might be a refreshing change! And remember, if something feels a bit wrong, _____ (11), it might be wise to turn it off.

Although the debate about television and the Internet will continue, _____ (12), it's up to each of us to decide how to best use them. After all, nothing is determined _____ (13), and preferences might change _____ (14). So, enjoy both, and make the most of what they offer! 😊