

Test 11

1. Choose the word or phrase (A, B, C, or D) that best completes the sentence.

1 Jerry said he ... go to the club to train last night; his coach told him to go.

2 'Professional cyclists are given free bikes and they ... repair them.'

‘That would be great.’

A has to	C must
B don't have to	D mustn't

3 Sherry said she ... go to bed early every night when she was in the swim club because sleep was very important.

4 You ... decide to start eating more healthy food if you want to play better.

5 They told us we ... buy any special clothes as long as we wore something comfortable.

6 You ... eat too much before you do gymnastics because you might get stomachache.

A don't have to	C have to
B must	D mustn't

7 'After the race you ... forgot to talk to your coach.'

‘Okay, I’ll remember.’

8 'If we want to get fit, we should walk more instead of taking the car.'

‘You’re right.’

9 We ... wear goggles when we went skiing. It was a rule.

10 'Hockey players train hard and go to bed early.'

‘I don’t think I could do that.’

Test 11

A mustn't

C have to

B don't have to

D must to

2. Choose the word or phrase (A, B, C, or D) that best completes the sentence.

1 'I ... done better in the match but I hadn't trained hard enough.'

'Well, you'll know better for next time.'

A can have

C could have

B will have

D must have

2 'Joseph took part in a triathlon.'

'Wow. That ... have been exhausting.'

A could

C might

B should

D must

3 When I was sixteen, I won a gymnastics championship; I ... really up for it!

A must have been

C must been

B must be

D must have being

4 Our hockey team didn't win the match; we ... have trained harder.

A could

C might

B should

D must

5 'Look! The team is celebrating.'

'Oh, they ... have won the league.'

A might

C must

B could

D should

6 'You ... the marathon! It was fantastic!'

'Oh well. I'll come next year.'

A should have saw

C should have seen

B should have see

D should has seen

7 It's too bad you didn't bring your goggles because we ... have gone skiing.

A should

C might

B must

D could

8 We had a great time kayaking. You ... have come with us.

A must

C should

B might

D could

9 'What a pity John wasn't able to take part in the boxing event.'

'Yes, I think he ... have won.'

A can

B should

Test 11

C might

D must

10 Somebody ... have told me about the game last night; I would have watched it.

A should

C have

B can

D must

11 'Look at you in this picture.'

'I was much heavier then than I am now. I ... have been very unfit.'

A must

C could

B might

D should

12 'I ... a great footballer but I was too lazy to train.'

'Well, look on the bright side, you're a fairly good tennis player.'

A could have be

C could have been

B could has been

D could have being

3. Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first sentence using the word given.

1 It was wrong to go skiing without goggles.

We skiing without goggles. GONE

2 A hockey helmet is necessary these days.

You a hockey helmet these days. MUST

3 Hitting the other players is not permitted.

You the other players. MUST

4 It was impossible for her to jump any higher.

She any higher. HAVE

5 It wasn't a good idea to miss practice without asking the coach.

You the coach if you could miss practice. ASKED

6 You mustn't go on such silly diets.

You on such silly diets. STOP

7 It isn't necessary to train so often.

You train so often. HAVE

8 It was possible for me to win the marathon.

I the marathon. COULD

4. Choose the correct word to complete the sentences.

1 I can/could have been a champion gymnast but I my dad put me off the sport.

2 You don't have to/must swim every day; once or twice a week is enough.

3 All the players don't have to/must understand the rules of the game.

Test 11

4 You should have/has started out slower so you wouldn't have run out of breath in the middle of the marathon.

5 You mustn't/don't have to eat before you go into the pool. You could get stomach ache.

6 He couldn't have/mustn't won the race because he had hurt his leg.

7 Janie has just won the tennis match; you must/should have seen her!

8 The cyclist knew he has/had to drink lots of water during the championship race.

9 Cameron mustn't/doesn't have to run five kilometres every day, but he really likes to keep fit.

10 If you want to be a good runner, you have to/mustn't have good running shoes.