Past continuous and past simple

We were playing tennis when it started to rain.

Language focus

Use past continuous and past simple together to talk about one action interrupting another in the past.

When you describe two actions using these tenses, you can order the sentence in two ways.

You can put the past continuous action first followed by the past simple:

I was doing my homework when my computer broke.

You can also put the past simple first followed by the past continuous. When you write the sentence in this way, use a comma.

When my computer broke, I was doing my homework.
