Phrasal Verbs

Phrasal verbs are made up of a verb and a particle, such as an adverb or preposition. Sometimes, phrasal verbs have two particles. Some phrasal verbs can be separated and some cannot.

Fill in the gaps using the correct phrasal verb from the box.

pick up

log on

get on

add up

get up

put on

take off

line up

put away

turn into

1. On weekdays, I _____ _____ at 7am.
2. In computing, we _____ _____ to the devices.
3. We _____ _____ to go home.
4. When it is cold, I _____ my coat _____.
5. We _____ our things _____ at the end of the lesson.
6. Sometimes, in maths, we have to _____ _____ numbers to find the answer.
7. If I _____ my jumper _____, I put it straight in my bag so I don't lose it.
8. In science, we learned that caterpillars _____ _____ butterflies.
9. On Tuesdays, we _____ _____ the bus to go swimming.
10. "Please _____ _____ your rubbish!"

twinkl

visit twinkl.com

LIVEWORKSHEETS