

NAME: _____ DATE: OCTOBER 19TH 2024

CLASS: ADULTS 6

SCORE: _____

TEACHER: MITZUE AVILEZ HAYASHI

Complete using correlative conjunctions.

1. _____ arrogance _____ petulance are undesirable personal traits.
2. She is really responsible, she has _____ called in sick _____ missed a day of work
3. _____ he gave her, _____ she demanded.
4. _____ you want to accept it _____ not, the relationship is over.
5. Matthew was _____ a problematic student _____ he was sent to boarding school.
6. I would _____ you said something to me _____ have you sitting there staring in silence.
7. I am asking you to _____ give him an ultimatum _____ have him resign.
8. Patrick will never meet anyone _____ sweet _____ Jocelyn
9. _____ had they separated _____ they filled for divorce.
10. _____ was he a great employee, _____ an amazing friend.

Write deductions according to the situations

11. A young woman is looking at her hand and she is wearing a beautiful ring and smiling

12. You open the door to your house and hear noises, but no one is supposed to be home today.

13. Your most unqualified coworker just got a huge raise.

14. Your brother just came back home from school early and he looks pale.

15. Lupita won miss universe last year.

16. Your best friend hasn't talked to you in four months.

Complete the sentences with the words from the box

eager	Sort through	meritocracy	resume	Raise the bar	discouraged	Leave a mark
-------	--------------	-------------	--------	---------------	-------------	--------------

17. He was _____ to work for this company.

18. People without tech skills shouldn't feel _____, there's a job for everyone.

19. When writing your _____ you need to include personal information, education and previous work experience.

20. Data analysts have to _____ accumulated data to find out what's relevant.

21. Tech companies are constantly looking for ways to _____ by developing more innovative products.

22. In many tech companies, a culture of _____ is promoted, where employees are rewarded based on their skills and performance rather than their seniority or connections.

23. This tech company _____ on the industry by constantly pushing the boundaries of innovation.