

UNIT 3 MY FRIENDS

READING

Task 1: Read and answer the questions.

One of my best friends' names is Robert. He lives in England and we always meet in summer. He spends his summer holidays on the beach in Huelva.

Robert is fifteen and he's very funny and generous. I like being with him because he always makes me laugh. We enjoy playing volleyball and riding our bikes. He also loves music and he plays the guitar and he's learning to play the piano. I don't play any instruments but I love music too. Robert doesn't like computer games. He likes playing with friends in the street. He has a dog called Toby.

Robert is tall and he's got short straight dark hair and green eyes. He likes wearing jeans and tracksuits.

He's a very good student. His favourite subject is Maths. He is not very good at Social Sciences but he studies hard to pass it.

Task 3: Read the article and decide whether the statements are True (T) or False (F).

As we know, these special relationship do more than we just get us by. Friends are our concert buddies. They're the people that come over to trap a mouse that's in the apartment. They're the ones who use through relationship blunders and changes at work. Research has also found that friends helps us live longer.

Aristotle once described a true friend as a "single soul dwelling in two bodies"- but what differentiates a true, lasting friendship from the other, temporary social bonds? According to Robert Rowney, D.O., a certified psychiatrist and the director of the Cleveland Clinic mood disorder unit, there are certain habits that genuine friends possess, which make them more like family. And it's these characteristics- and sometimes even tough love – that create that indescribable bond.

1. Friends see us through relationship blunders and changes at work
2. Research has found that friend don't help us live longer
3. A true friend is described as "single soul dwelling in two bodies"
4. According to Robert Rowney, there are certain habits genuine friends possess.
5. Sometimes even tough love can't create that indescribable bond.
