Reading comprehension

My Town: A Day in the Past

Last Saturday, Maria and her family visited the town centre. They started their day at the bakery, where they bought some fresh bread and pastries. After enjoying their breakfast, they walked to the nearby library. Maria borrowed a book about dinosaurs, which she was very excited to read.

In the afternoon, they went to the park. Maria's younger brother played on the swings while Maria read her new book. Her parents enjoyed a quiet moment on a bench, watching the children play. Later, they all went to the town museum. Maria learned about the history of the town and saw many interesting artefacts.

Before heading home, they stopped at a small café for some hot chocolate. Maria thought it was the best day she had in a long time. She loved spending time with her family and discovering new places in her town.
