

Name:.....

Date: 1/10/2024

1. True or False

- a) Plants can survive without water.
 True False
- b) A desert is an example of a habitat.
 True False
- c) Microhabitats are very large areas like oceans.
 True False
- d) Plants need oxygen to stay alive, just like animals do.
 True False
-

2. Fill in the Gaps

- a) A place where a living thing lives is called a
- b) A habitat found in very cold areas and unique wildlife, like the North Pole, is called the habitat.
- c) Plants take in water through their
- d) Small habitats within a larger one, like under a rock, are called
-

3. Multiple Choice

- a) Which of these is NOT a habitat?
 Rainforest
 River
 Table
- b) Which part of the plant helps it take in water from the soil?
 Leaves
 Stem
 Roots

c) Which of the following is a microhabitat?

- Desert
 - Tree bark
 - Ocean
-

4. Answer the Following Questions

a) What do plants need oxygen for?

.....

b) Why do plants need water to survive?

.....

c) Name one habitat where plants and animals can live together.

.....

5. Challenge Question

Explain how plants get oxygen and why it's important for them to survive

.....

.....

.....

Mr. Jabber Ramadan

