2. The people in the village work very hard.
3. Villagers live only by catching fish in lakes, ponds, and canals.
4. The children are always busy helping their parents.
5. The villagers get along well.

I feel fortunate that I am living in a peaceful village in southern Viet Nam. The scenery here is beautiful and picturesque with vast fields stretching long distances. The houses are surrounded by green trees. There are lakes, ponds, and canals here and there. The air is fresh and cool. Life here seems to move more slowly than in cities. The people work very hard. They grow vegetables, cultivate rice, and raise cattle. At harvest time, they use combine harvesters to harvest their crops. Many families live by growing fruit trees in the orchards. Others live by fishing in lakes, ponds, and canals. Life in the village is very comfortable for children. They play traditional games. Sometimes they help their parents pick fruit and herd cattle. People in my village know each other well. They are friendly and hospitable. They often meet each other in the evening, eating fruit, playing chess, singing folk songs, and chatting about everyday activities.

Exercise 4: Listen to three people talking about life in the countryside. Choose the option (A-C) that each speaker (1-3) expresses.

Speaker 1
Speaker 2
Speaker 3

Opinions
A. I don't like rural life because there are not many good schools and colleges. And entertainment and means of transport are very poor.
B. I like rural life because the people here are close to each other.
C. I want to live in the countryside because there are many things I can't easily do in the city.
