Summer in Bali

Last summer, my family and I took an exciting vacation to Bali, Indonesia. We 1. (starts / started) at Kuta Beach, enjoying days of swimming, building sandcastles, and dining at seaside restaurants while watching stunning sunsets. The lively beach atmosphere was a perfect beginning to our holiday.

After a few days, we traveled to Ubud to visit my grandparents in their traditional Balinese village. They welcomed us warmly, and we 2. (enjoying / enjoyed / enjoy) homemade Balinese dishes and explored the village together. Visiting the Sacred Monkey Forest Sanctuary with my grandparents 3. (was / were / is) a delightful experience.

In the afternoon we 4. (none / are) (explored / exploring) the Tegalalang Rice Terraces with them. The lush, green terraces were breathtaking, and we learned about traditional farming practices. My grandparents 5. (shares / shared / sharing) stories from their childhood, making the visit even more special.

Our trip concluded with a visit to Tanah Lot Temple. Watching the sunset over the temple, perched on a rocky outcrop, was magical. Combining the joy of a family vacation with the warmth of reconnecting with my grandparents made this Bali trip unforgettable.
