

Grammar training

Some/ Any/ No

Tick the correct sentences.

1. Would you like some coffee before we start?
2. Could you bring me some documents from the office?
3. I'll accept any help you can offer.
4. Can you lend me some money until Friday?
5. You can choose any movie you like for tonight.
6. We're going to need some more chairs for the guests.
7. Could you give me no more details about the event?
8. I didn't see any people at the party.
9. She doesn't have any time to meet today.
10. I need some help with this project.
11. Could you save me some time by doing this for me?
12. I couldn't find any parking spots near the restaurant.
13. There isn't any coffee in the kitchen.
14. You can park in any space that's open.
15. There's no information available about the new policy.
16. Can you recommend some good restaurants in the area?
17. Please send me any documents you have on the topic.
18. There's no chance we'll win the game.
19. Some of my friends came to the event.
20. I'll take any advice you can offer.
21. Can you get me some supplies from the store?
22. I haven't heard any news about the meeting yet.
23. There's any one here who can help us right now.
24. Please send me any updates you receive about the project.

