

Sentences in Context:

1. The loud music seemed to affect her concentration during the exam.
2. Climate change is a pressing issue that governments around the world are trying to address.
3. The effect of regular exercise on mental health is well-documented.
4. The scientist presented evidence to support her new theory.
5. The debate became violent when one of the participants started yelling and throwing objects.
6. The development of the new app took several months but was ultimately successful.
7. The interaction between the teacher and students helped clarify difficult concepts.
8. His intellectual curiosity led him to study philosophy in college.
9. Many children have a shorter attention span when they are tired or hungry.
10. The teacher expressed her concern about the student's declining performance in class.

Multiple-Choice Matching:

1. Affect
  - a) Something that happens as a result
  - b) To influence or change something
  - c) A problem or topic for discussion
2. Issue
  - a) Evidence or proof
  - b) A question or problem needing a solution
  - c) The end result of an action
3. Effect
  - a) Something that happens as a result of a cause
  - b) To interact with someone
  - c) A feeling of fear or anxiety
4. Evidence
  - a) Facts or information that support a belief or claim
  - b) A topic of great interest
  - c) A way of communicating ideas
5. Violent
  - a) Calm and peaceful
  - b) Using physical force intended to hurt or damage
  - c) A slow process of change
6. Development
  - a) A steady increase in knowledge
  - b) The process of growing or improving
  - c) A conflict between two people
7. Interaction
  - a) A way in which two or more people or things communicate or work together
  - b) A long conversation

- c) The result of an experiment
- 8. Intellectual
  - a) Physical strength or endurance
  - b) Relating to the mind and thinking
  - c) Expressing emotions
- 9. Attention span
  - a) The ability to stay focused on a task or activity for a period of time
  - b) A sudden burst of energy
  - c) The time taken to finish a project
- 10. Concern
  - a) A feeling of worry or care about something
  - b) A joyful experience
  - c) A positive effect on others