

1. Complete the sentences using the adjective given in brackets or the adverb formed from this adjective.

1. (easy) It's not _____ to be a freediver. It needs much training. But experienced freedivers can _____ hold their breath for a long time.
2. (slow) The secretary types _____ in order to avoid making mistakes, but the boss doesn't like her _____ work. (quick) He wants her to type _____.
3. (sudden) Forest fires can start _____ in very dry areas. The _____ fires in the places that are far from the cities are really dangerous.
4. (careful) A secretary must be very _____ with important documents and letters. She should check such letters and emails _____ for mistakes before sending them.
5. (good/easy) _____ taxi drivers have to know a city very _____, so that they could find people's destinations _____. In fact, a taxi driver is not an _____ job.
6. (late) Security guards often work _____ at night guarding buildings. These _____ hours are the hardest in their work.
7. (silent) The class was _____ during the test. The children worked _____ to avoid mistakes.
8. (hard) It's really _____ to be a smokejumper. Smokejumpers have to train very _____.
9. (quick) They use airplanes to get to the fire _____ and to put out the fire as _____ as they can.
10. (brave) Sergey jumped _____ into the water to save the small girl who couldn't swim. After that everyone knew that he was really a _____ boy.
11. (happy) They were talking _____ when they returned from the forest. And though they smelled of smoke, they were really _____ that the fire was put out.
12. (good) It was not a _____ idea to go to the forest alone, but they were sure that Paul knew the forest very _____.

