

VERB + PREPOSITION

test-english.com

TO	FOR	AT	IN
Belong to somebody	Ask for sth	Arrive at a place or event	Arrive in a town, city, country, etc.
Get married to sb	Apply for sth	Look at something or somebody	Believe in sth
Listen to sb	Look for sth	Laugh at sth or sb	Invest in sth
Look forward to sth	Pay for sth	Shout at sth or sb	Succeed in sth or doing sth
Say sth to sb	Wait for sth or sb	Smile at sth or sb
Talk to sb
Write to sb
ON	OF	WITH	ABOUT
Insist on sth	Remind of sb or sth	Argue with sb	Argue about sth
Depend on sth	Think of sth or doing sth	Agree with sb	Complain about sth
Spend money on sth		Compare sth with sth else	Dream about sth
		Spend time with sb	Talk about sth
		Stay with sb	Think about sb or sth

test-english.com

Choose the correct form:

- The doctor referred the patient to/for a specialist for further evaluation.
- The nurse listens at/to the patient's concerns during the consultation.
- The physician explained the diagnosis for/to the patient and their family.
- We look forward to/at the results of the lab tests to adjust the treatment plan.
- The doctor said at/to the team that the patient's condition was improving.
- Nurses talk to/for the patients to gather important information for the charts.
- She writes at/to her colleagues about updates in patient care protocols.
- The patient asked for/at a copy of their clinical chart.
- He applied for/to approval to access the patient's medical records.
- The team is looking for/after missing data in the patient's medical history.
- I paid for/to the latest diagnostic software to update the system.
- We are waiting for/at the lab to process the blood samples.
- The team arrived at/to the decision after reviewing the clinical chart.
- He looked to/at the patient's X-ray results to confirm the diagnosis.
- The nurse smiled to/at the patient, offering reassurance before the procedure.