

Who did it ?

Police found the body of Mrs Jean Rolands on the lawn outside her home at three o'clock in the afternoon. Listen to the police report, focus on the evidence and decide if it was an accident, suicide or murder.....and if it was murder, who did it? Work it out.

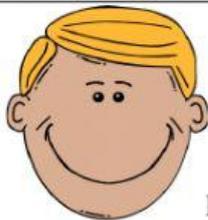

Arthur Ramsgrave

He lives on the top floor.
He doesn't know Mrs Rolands very well but he knew her husband better.

Elizabeth Atwell

She lives across corridor from Mrs Rolands. She thinks Miss Forester, Mrs Rolands' neighbour, opened her door when she was having coffee at about ten o'clock, and someone left.

Ian Walters

He works for a TV repair firm. He called on Mrs Rolands at about 9.15am. Her cleaner opened the door. He repaired the TV...He doesn't think Mrs Rolands was in while he was working there.
_____ in the bedroom- but I think that was the cleaner

Bessie Talbot

She never liked Mrs Rolands. She was going to the library when she saw her outside the block of flats at about ten o'clock.

Rosie Matthews

She cleans Mrs Rolands' flat every day. When she arrived at 8.30 this morning, she was just going out. She had her coat on and she was looking well and happy.

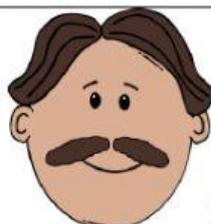

Ann Forester

She lives in the flat next door to Mrs Rolands. She knew her quite well but she was out shopping all morning.

Mike Simmons

He was at the corner of Redford Road at about _____ when he caught a glimpse of Mrs Rolands she was walking slowly over towards that small piece of lawn, but he was in a hurry and didn't stop to speak to her.

Peter Woolcombe

He lives _____ in the same building as Mrs Rolands. Mrs Matthews went upstairs at about 8.30; the window cleaner came. He thinks he saw Mrs Rolands at about _____. He was just going to the laundry when she went out of the main door of the building

Bill Martin

He cleans all the windows round here. He was having a cup of tea at about 9.30 when he saw Mrs Rolands. She waved at him from that window up there..... 'Oh, wait a minute.....that's Miss Forester 's flat isn't it?' 'That's right. It was that window!'

Judith Brown

She lives in the flat above Mrs Rolands. Of course, Mr Rolands died a year ago. They were only married for five years. He was a good friend of Ann Forester until he married, but after the wedding, Ann never really spoke to Mrs Rolands.....She thinks she was a bit jealous. Judith was _____ work at about four o' clock when Mr Woolcombe told me the awful news.

Doctor Heaney, forensic scientist

This person died between _____ this morning probably from an overdose of drugs, even poison. We shall know when we do all the tests.
