

GRAMMAR FINAL REVIEW

Exercise 1: Fill in the blanks with the appropriate modal verb: will, could, may, might, or won't.

1. Scientists believe that humans _____ live on Mars in the distant future.
2. I'm not sure, but we _____ have flying cars by the year 2050.
3. People _____ use robots for everyday tasks like cleaning and cooking.
4. You _____ be able to download food recipes directly to your brain.
5. I'm certain that computers _____ continue to become more powerful.
6. It _____ be possible to work from anywhere in the world using virtual reality.
7. People _____ need to learn new skills to adapt to future technologies.
8. There _____ be a universal language that everyone speaks.
9. Experts predict that we _____ see massive changes in the way we communicate.
10. In the future, traditional classrooms _____ no longer exist.

Exercise 2: Choose the correct modal verb (will, could, may, might, won't) to complete each sentence.

1. In the future, people (will / could) use AI for creative tasks like writing music or painting.
2. Experts say we (might / won't) be able to cure many diseases within the next decade.
3. Robots (will / may not) replace humans in all jobs, but they (could / won't) take over repetitive tasks.
4. In 20 years, we (will / might not) be using fossil fuels for energy anymore.
5. It's possible that space tourism (may / will not) become affordable for everyone.

"And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men"

Colossians 3: 23

6. We (could / won't) develop new ways to harness clean energy that we haven't thought of yet.
7. I'm sure that technology (will / might) improve healthcare and save lives.
8. Some experts believe that we (will / might not) be able to communicate with animals in the future.
9. Traditional money (will not / could) disappear and be replaced by digital currencies.
10. We (may / won't) even be able to live to 150 years old with advancements in medicine.

"And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men"

Colossians 3: 23